IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
(DALLAS DIVISION)

IN RE:	§
	§	CHAPTER 11
NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA and SEA GIRT LLC,	§
	§	CASE NO. 21-30085-hdh-11
DEBTORS.¹	§
	§	JOINTLY ADMINISTERED

MMP’S MOTION FOR AN ORDER REQUIRING THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE TO RECONSTITUTE THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS

Creditor and party-in-interest Membership Marketing Partners, LLC (“MMP”) files this Motion for an Order Requiring the United States Trustee to Reconstitute the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

I. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this proceeding in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1334(b). This Court can hear and determine this matter in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 157 and the standing order of reference of bankruptcy cases and proceedings in this District. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. §157(b)(2)(A).

2. MMP consents to the entry of final orders by the Bankruptcy Court for all matters over which this Court has jurisdiction concerning this Motion.

II. RELIEF REQUESTED AND BASES FOR RELIEF

3. The bases for the relief sought are found in §§ 105(a), 1102(a)(4), and 1102(b)(1) of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 2007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

4. MMP asks the Court to enter an order requiring the U.S. Trustee to change the composition of the Official Unsecured Creditors’ Committee (the “OCC”) as it is currently constituted because the current composition of the OCC does not meet the Bankruptcy Code’s requirements for committees of creditors.

5. Specifically, MMP asks the Court to enter an order requiring the U.S. Trustee to appoint to the OCC “persons, willing to serve, that hold the seven largest claims against the debtor of the kinds represented by such committee” as is the “ordinary” rule for committees under Bankruptcy Code § 1102(b)(1).

III. BACKGROUND

6. Sea Girt LLC and the National Rifle Association of America (“NRA” or the “Debtor”) filed their voluntary petitions under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on January 15, 2021 (“Petition Date”) initiating the above-captioned Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases (together, the “Bankruptcy Case”).

7. On February 4, 2021 the United States Trustee for the Bankruptcy Case filed a notice of the formation of the OCC. See Docket No. 105.

8. The OCC formed by the U.S. Trustee consists of only five members: (i) the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (“PBGC”); (ii) Ackerman McQueen Inc.; (iii) David Dell’Aquila; (iv) InfoCision, Inc.; and (v) Stone River Gear, LLC.

9. Regarding the five members, MMP has no complaint about the inclusion of true creditors InfoCision, and Stone River Gear, LLC, but the inclusion of the PBGC Dell’Aquila, and Ackerman are puzzling, to say the least. The PBGC is, at best, a contingent creditor; Ackerman’s relationship with the Debtor is litigious and antagonistic, and involves far more than its role as a creditor (see Phillip Journey’s Motion for Appointment of an Examiner, Docket No. 114); and Dell’Aquila is not on the list of creditors holding the largest unsecured claims but is, rather, a donor who is in litigation with the Debtor and who has been on a years-long quest to replace the Debtor’s board of directors and management.

IV. ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITIES

10. The Bankruptcy Code provides that a bankruptcy court “may order the United States trustee to change the membership of a committee appointed under this subsection, if the court determines that the change is necessary to ensure adequate representation of creditors” 11 U.S.C. § 1102(a)(4). As the U.S. Trustee in this case has acknowledged, “[t]he unsecured creditors’ committee, at its core, must adequately represent the class of unsecured creditors, meeting the goal of functionality.” Greg M. Zipes & Lisa L. Lambert, Creditors’ Committee Formation Dynamics: Issues in the Real World, 77 Am. Bankr. L. J. 229, 238 (Spring 2003).

11. The Bankruptcy Code does not define “adequate representation.” In re Enron Corporation, 279 B.R. 671, 684-85 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002) (“There is no framework provided in the Bankruptcy Code for [courts] to determine adequate representation.”). Nevertheless, factors such as the ability of the committee to function, the nature of the case, and the standing and desires of the various constituencies help a court determine adequate representation. on a case-by-case basis. See In re Dow Corning Corp., 194 B.R. 121, 141 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 1996), rev’d on other grounds, 212 B.R. 258 (E.D. Mich. 1997) (decision of adequate representation is made on a case-by-case basis, and “[t]he factors most commonly cited are: the ability of the committee to function; the nature of the case; and the standing and desires of the various constituencies.”); see also In re Hill Stores Co., 137 B.R. 4, 5-6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992); In re McLean Indus., Inc., 70 B.R. 852, 860-61 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987); Albero v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re JohnsManville Corp.), 68 B.R. 155, 159 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986).

12. For a creditor group to be adequately represented by a committee, the interests of that group must “have a meaningful voice on the committee in relation to their posture in the case.” In re Dow Corning Corp., 194 B.R. at 141 (emphasis added).

13. The issue of whether creditors are adequately represented is to be determined by the Court without any deference to the U.S. Trustee's determinations, and § 1102 affords the Court discretion to determine whether to appoint additional members to a committee. See In re First Republicbank Corp., 95 B.R. 58, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 1988) ("If raised, the issue of adequate representation must be determined by the court de novo after the United States trustee performs his administrative task of appointing the committee members."); In re ShoreBank Corp., 467 B.R. 156, 162 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2012) (holding that there is no standard of review to determine adequate representation, but rather it is to be an "independent determination of whether a change in committee composition is necessary"); In re McLean Industries, Inc., 70 B.R. 852, 857-58 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1987) ("Congress expressly retained in bankruptcy courts the ability to decide de novo the question of whether additional committees are necessary to assure adequate representation.")

14. A committee is not adequately represented when "the committee is so dominated by one group of creditors that a separate group has virtually no say in the decision-making process. Consequently, courts look to see whether conflicts of interest on the committee effectively disenfranchise particular groups of creditors." In re Dow Corning Corp., 194 B.R. at 142 (citing Sharon Steel, 100 B.R. at 779; In re Saxon Industries, Inc., 39 B.R. 945, 947 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1984)). A committee adequately represents creditors only "as long as the diverse interests of the various creditor groups are represented on and have participated in the committee." Mirant Americas Energy Mtkg., L.P. v. Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors of Enron, No. 02-CV-6274, 2003 WL

22327118, at *7 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 10, 2003) (quoting In re Hills Stores, Co., 137 B.R. at 6) (citing In re Sharon Steel Corp., 100 B.R. 767, 777–78 (Bankr W.D. Pa. 1989)) (emphasis added).

15. When reviewing a decision by a United States Trustee regarding the composition of a committee (for example, on a motion challenging a removal of a member), courts review whether the U.S. Trustee’s action was arbitrary and capricious. A decision is arbitrary and capricious if “it is based on an erroneous conclusion of law, a record devoid of evidence on which the decision maker could rationally have based its decision, or is otherwise patently unreasonable, arbitrary or fanciful.” In re First Republicbank Corp., 95 B.R. at 60. Further, the decision must be judged on the stated reason for which the decision was initially made, and not on later statements or reasoning meant to shore up that original decision. Securities Comm’n v. Chenery Corp. (Chenery II), 332 U.S. 194, 196 (1947) (“A reviewing court, in dealing with a determination or judgment which an administrative agency alone is authorized to make, must judge the propriety of such action solely by the grounds invoked by the agency. If those grounds are inadequate or improper, the court is powerless to affirm the administrative action by substituting what it considers to be a more adequate or proper basis.”).

16. The OCC as formed by the U.S. Trustee does not adequately represent the unsecured creditors in the Bankruptcy Case. The Bankruptcy Code provides that “ordinarily” a creditors’ committee should consist of seven members, yet the U.S. Trustee selected only five members for the OCC. The OCC as presently constituted simply cannot adequately represent the creditor body in this case. In a case where the Debtor asserts it has between $100 million and $500 million in liabilities owing to between 200 and 999 creditors, and in which the twenty largest creditors hold unsecured claims that the Debtor says total more than $7 million, a committee of just five members is not reasonable or appropriate.

17. Why does the OCC only have five members? The U.S. Trustee has so far refused to provide a credible answer to that question. But it appears that the OCC contains only five members in order to ensure that issues that come to a vote can be decided by the three non-trade creditors on the OCC. In other words, the U.S. Trustee appears to have stacked the OCC to make the PBGC/Ackerman/Dell'Aquila a ruling triumvirate—an insurmountable voting bloc. The U.S. Trustee's departure from the norm of having at least seven members on a committee has effectively rendered the two trade creditors on the OCC mere window dressing. And that appears to be precisely what the U.S. Trustee intended.

18. Although not every case requires seven members for a creditors' committee, the departure from the norm cannot be made arbitrarily and capriciously. Typically, committees in large cases will have at least seven members. Smaller committees generally are found in smaller cases with few creditors or cases where the U.S. Trustee is unable to persuade more creditors to serve. But in this case, that is not the reason the OCC has only five members. Indeed, the U.S. Trustee refused to place on the OCC multiple creditors that had expressed a willingness and desire to serve.

19. For example, the movant, MMP, is the second-largest unsecured creditor in the case and not only expressed a desire to serve on the OCC, but timely submitted all information requested by the U.S. Trustee and attended a nearly one-hour interview with representative from the U.S. Trustee's office. But the U.S. Trustee did not invite MPP to join the OCC and, when asked why, refused to give a reason for the decision. See Email exchange dated February 9-11 between Judith Ross and Lisa Lambert, attached to this Motion as Exhibit A.²

20. Other creditors on the Debtor's list of creditors holding the twenty largest unsecured claims against the Debtor also have expressed an interest in serving, provided information to the U.S. Trustee, engaged in lengthy phone interviews with the U.S. Trustee's office, and were summarily rejected without explanation. Such creditors include Valtim Marketing Solutions and Quad/Graphics, Inc., each of which the Debtor indicates have unsecured claims of over half a million dollars. See Email exchanges dated February 10-11 between Judith Ross and representatives of Valtim and Quad/Graphics, attached to this Motion as Exhibits B and C, respectively. MMP will happily step aside in favor of Valtim and Quad/Graphics being placed on the OCC. MMP's only goal is to ensure that the majority of creditor interests (i.e., those of vendors) are represented on such committee.

21. The law is clear and indisputable: a committee of creditors must adequately represent the general body of creditors in the case. The OCC appointed by the U.S. Trustee in this case does not. The U.S. Trustee appears to have hand-picked three creditors for the OCC with an axe to grind against the Debtor's management, effectively giving those three creditors absolute control of the OCC. This omission was as intentional and deliberate as it was arbitrary and capricious. The remedy for this departure from the norm is simple: add at least two true trade creditors from the list of the Debtor's twenty largest creditors to make the OCC more balanced and genuinely representative of creditor interests.

V. PRAYER

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, MMP respectfully prays that this Court enter an order substantially in the form submitted herewith requiring the U.S. Trustee to add to the OCC at least two willing trade creditors among those holding the twenty largest unsecured claims against the Debtor's estate and providing such other relief as the Court deems just and equitable.
